

IEFT CODE OF CONDUCT

PURPOSE

This policy summarises the obligations and responsibilities of all members of the IEFT community to observe standards of equity and respect in their dealing with others.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all members of the IEFT community: students, employees, and the members of Boards and various committees. It is also intended to guide visitors and contractors about the ethical standards that IEFT expects they will uphold in any engagement with the institution.

DEFINITIONS

Nil.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Dean (Emotionally Focused Therapy) is responsible for:

- the implementation and compliance monitoring of the Code;
- taking all reasonable steps to ensure that any breaches of the Code are addressed;
- reporting serious breaches of the Code to the CEO as soon as possible;
- managing serious breaches of the Code according to IEFT's Staff Performance Management Policy and/or Student Discipline Policy and Procedure.

POLICY

1. IEFT values the diversity of its community in terms of age, gender, language, religious, spiritual, cultural, sexual orientation, socioeconomic and intersex status, and therefore creates equity of opportunities for academic success.
2. All members of the IEFT community:
 - respect the rights and views of others;
 - treat other members with fairness, respect and courtesy, without prejudice or discrimination;
 - respect the privacy of others and the confidentiality of entrusted information;
 - are committed to maintaining a learning environment that is free from any form of bullying, or racial, sexual or verbal harassment;
 - value academic rigour and integrity;
 - act in good faith and with honesty, integrity, transparency and impartiality; and
 - respect IEFT's facilities, resources and equipment; and use them in accordance with work, health and safety obligations.
3. Serious breaches of this Code will result in disciplinary action:
 - for students, penalties may include suspension or expulsion;
 - for staff, action will be taken in accordance with the Staff Performance Management Policy, and processes detailed in the applicable employment agreement.
4. IEFT will report all criminal acts committed by any member of the community to the police and / or other relevant authorities.
