

Signing up for a Canvas account as a student?

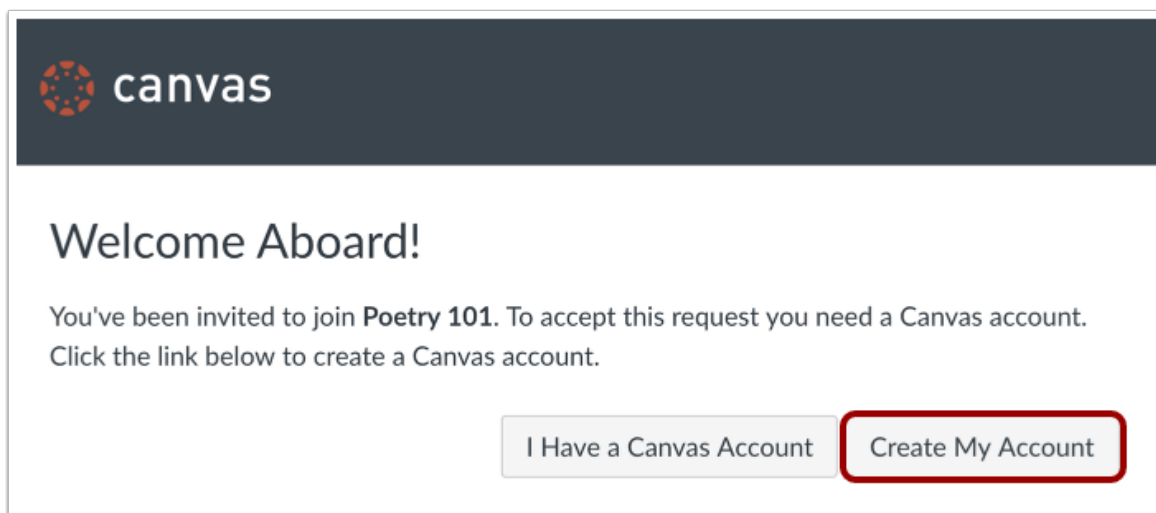

Accept a Course Invitation

The screenshot shows an email invitation from Canvas. At the top, it says "You've been invited to participate in a class at documentation.instructure.com". A red box highlights the URL, with a "1" in a black circle above it. Below this, it says "The class is called Poetry 101. Course role: Student". Then, it lists "Name: Bryce Allen McDowell" and "Email: bryceallenmcdowell0000@gmail.com". A red box highlights the email address, with a "2" in a black circle to its left. Below the email, it says "You'll need to register with Canvas before you can participate in the class." In the center, there is a blue button labeled "Get Started" with a "3" in a black circle above it. At the bottom, there is the Canvas logo and two links: "Click here to view the course page" and "Update your notification settings".

If you've enrolled in or been invited to a Canvas course, you will receive an email that contains your institution's Canvas URL [1] and your email address to use for your login [2]. To accept the course invitation, click the Get Started button [3].

Create Canvas Account

Click the Create My Account button.

Note: If you already have a Canvas account, click the I Have a Canvas Account button. You'll be directed to the Canvas login page.
